By filling out the registration form as a delegate, or parent/legal guardian of a delegate, you are agreeing to abide by this. Should you be found with drugs or alcohol on the school premises, you may be asked to leave the premises and find alternative accommodation. Please note that in New Zealand it is illegal to supply alcohol to anyone under the age of 18 years old and it is illegal to consume, possess or supply certain drugs. Congress officials may be required to involve Police if any criminal offending is detected.

- 1.) Delegates agree to abide by the rules and regulations stipulated by Kings College. These rules will be provided to you on the day of the event.
- 2.) Kings College has 24-hour security on campus, however, all delegates are responsible for their own belongings. For your own safety, ensure you have a lock for your bag(s). Kings College has a safe on-site for delegates who wish to use this.
- 3.) Should a delegate set off a smoke alarm causing a false alarm, that delegate is responsible for the instant NZ$1500 payment. To avoid setting off the alarms we urge all to not use/be extremely cautious when using deodorant, hair spray, hair straighteners and making toast in your houses.
